

Experience Aashwamedh Enrich Life

Welcome to the healing garden of mother nature. Fresh air. Green plants. And herbs with positive health giving properties. These properties are documented in Ayurved, the ancient Indian natural science of health and healing. Ayurved is India's legacy of more than 5000 years carried forth since time immemorial. This treasure of wisdom and experience forms the basis for the traditional range of AASHWAMEDH Ayurvedic products. Ancient scriptures depict Aashwamedh, the unstoppable, as the epitome of youth full vigour. It stands for all that is pure, unadulterated and auspicious for longevity and prosperity.

Ayurved, often referred to as the Science of Life, is an all encompassing philosophy that prescribes a Way of Life. It dictates focus upon the Quality of Life in relation to Nature all around. At the heart of this science lies the objective of maintaining Total Health. Total Health is a concept that goes beyond the simplistic approach of disease and remedy and stands for the individual human capacity to realise it's fullest potential in life.

Ayurved, being a compilation of deep knowledge and experiential wisdom, was updated time and again as per changes in human needs through the ages. It's basic principles, however, being based on universal truths, have remained constant throughout all ages, and are even today, just as valid as they were at the beginning of mankind. This fact makes Ayurved the true science of life, valid for as long as life exists.

Ayurvedic Specialities

Named after the sage Chyavan, who on receiving the secret recipe from none less than the Aswini Kumaras (the healing twins of the Indian Gods), regained his youthful energy and vigour with the help of this herbal fruit confection.

The suffix prash signifies the category of Avaleha - fruit and herb preparations, meant to be chewed. It contains mainly the pulp of the Amla fruit with other herbs in accordance with an over 800 year old updated recipe contained in the Ayurvedic texts. As the legend depicts, it is meant to keep the body strong and healthy from within and help maintain it's Dosha balance so that one can accomplish one's daily tasks well. Thus remaining fit and active all life long, one may enjoy one's life with a wholesome sense of satisfaction. Due to its excellent taste and palatability it is a favorite tonic with all age groups & an ideal daily health supplement.

Herb - T™

Herbal Teas are a simple way of using the goodness of herbs and spices to maintain a harmonious balance throughout the day. AASHWAMEDH herbal teas contain a blend of well selected herbs renowned for their pleasant taste and positive effects on health and well being. They complement perfectly individual lifestyle and constitution.

Herbal Oils

Ayurved recommends daily massage with various herbal oils as a part of health promoting regimen. According to Charak Samhita, the ancient text of Ayurved, "oil massage raises tolerance to hardship and inducts strength in muscles. It slows the onslaught of ageing. It induces sound sleep and promotes a sense of physical and mental well being"

Beauty Care

Total health is natural beauty. Realising the importance of beauty for feeling of well being and personal happiness, ancient Ayurvedic scripts recommend the use of various herbs & mineral rich clays as beauty aids. These ancient formulae are totally free of chemicals or animal products. Shakuntal[™] incorporates these ancient beauty secrets in Exclusive combinations of herbs and minerals for a healthier and naturally radiant beauty.
